

Class 4 EnglishUnseen Passage*Comprehension Passage – Mahatma Gandhi

Mahatma Gandhi is known as the Father of the Nation in India. He was born on 2nd October 1869 in Porbandar, Gujarat. Gandhi believed strongly in truth, peace, and non-violence. He played an important role in India's freedom struggle against British rule.

Instead of using weapons, Gandhi followed peaceful methods such as marches, fasts, and protests. One of the most famous movements led by him was the Dandi March in 1930, where he walked for many days to protest against the salt tax imposed by the British. Thousands of people joined him and supported the freedom movement.

Gandhi lived a very simple and disciplined life. He wore clothes made of khadi and encouraged others to use local products. He believed that India could become strong only when its villages developed. His thoughts and values continue to inspire people all over the world.

Every year, we celebrate Gandhi Jayanti on 2nd October to remember his teachings and contribution.

Comprehension Passage – The Broken Friendship

Once upon a time, dogs, cats, and mice lived happily as friends. They trusted each other and shared everything. One day, the dogs had to go on a long trip. Before leaving, they gave some important papers to the cats and said, “Please keep these safe for us.” The cats agreed and promised to take good care of them.

After the dogs left, the cats became worried. They did not have a safe place to keep the papers. So, they decided to give them to the mice. The mice also promised to take care of the papers carefully.

Soon winter arrived, and the weather became very cold. The mice started feeling chilly and uncomfortable. To keep themselves warm, they nibbled the papers and used them to make soft nests.

After a few days, the dogs returned and asked the cats for their papers. The cats told them that the mice had them. When they checked, they found the papers torn into pieces. The cats became angry and chased the mice. Later, the dogs got angry with the cats for being careless. From that day onwards, dogs, cats, and mice were no longer friends.
